Abstract. From December 7th to 8th, 2016, the National Conference on Ideological and Political Work was held in Beijing. General Secretary Xi Jinping delivered an important speech and caused a warm response in the national education front. According to the instructions of the General Secretary of the Communist Party of China (CPC), the national colleges and universities, especially the military colleges and universities, should strengthen the important positions of the party's leadership and shoulder the important task of cultivating the virtues of virtue and virtue and the development of the socialist undertakings and successors. This article aims to further strengthen and improve the ideological and political work in colleges and universities to put forward the views of the ideological and political work in colleges and universities from the perspectives of upholding the party's leadership and adhering to the socialist direction. Doing a good job of ideological and political work in colleges and universities in China is an important task to realize Chinese dream.

1. Cohesion always adhere to the CPC's leadership

Since the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China (CPC), the Party Central Committee with the core of Comrade Xi Jinping has put the ideological and political work in colleges and universities in a prominent position and made a series of major decision-making arrangements. Strengthen and improve the ideological and political work in colleges and universities, the purpose is to cultivate both red and specialized, both ability and political integrity, the full development of the Chinese characteristics of socialism qualified builders and reliable successors[1]. To run higher education in our country, we must uphold the leadership of the Party and firmly grasp the leadership of the Party's work in colleges and universities so that the university can become a strong stand of upholding the party's leadership. Strengthening the Party's leadership to colleges and universities is the fundamental guarantee for running the socialist universities with Chinese characteristics. The party's leadership should be embodied in the work of school governance and party building[2].

1.1 Uphold the leadership of the CPC, firmly grasp the leadership of the party work in colleges and universities.

Strengthen and improve the school party committee on the ideological and political work leadership, to focus on the fundamental task of Lide tree, one hand and environmental construction, one hand and team building. To build a modern university system with Chinese characteristics, adhere to the leadership of the party committee under the leadership system throughout[3]. We should focus on building a contingent of cadres with a focus on the leadership of the two levels of the school, the teachers with the focus on young teachers, and the ideological and political team with the focus on counselors.

The school party committee through various forms of theoretical study, and earnestly strengthen and improve the school party committee of the school ideological and political work of political leadership and ideological leadership, improve the party's grass-roots organizations to do ideological and political work capacity. Colleges and universities must profoundly realize that the main body of the party committees in colleges and universities is to strengthen the party building, implement a comprehensive leadership, and better assume the responsibility of governing party members and running schools; they must focus on implementing the principal responsibility system under the leadership of the party committee [4]. And constantly improve the internal governance structure, the construction of modern Chinese characteristics of the university system; must strengthen the party's grassroots organizations in colleges and universities, the focus of the work on the branch, especially the construction of the Labor Party branch, standardize the organization of the branch, "Cell" vitality[5].

1.2 Strengthening the CPC's Grass - roots Organization Construction and Innovating System Mechanism in Colleges and Universities

Strengthening the construction of grassroots organizations in colleges and universities needs to innovate institutional mechanisms and improve the working methods. General Secretary Xi Jinping pointed out in his speech, "to do a good job in the development of party members and students in the work of party members to strengthen the education and management of party members, so that each teacher and student members are done in the CPC" [5]. The majority of university executives generally believe that this is the future of the party building grassroots organizations pointed out the direction.

Strengthen the construction of grassroots party organizations at the grassroots level, and deepen the leadership of the school party to the grassroots level, reflected in the grassroots level. Focus on the grass-roots party organizations to stimulate the vitality of the grassroots academic organizations and teaching organizations, to lofty ideals to lead teachers and students to the characteristics of the theory of armed teachers and students to model teachers and students to organize care and cohesion teachers and students[6].

1.3 Improve the local CPC to grasp the ideological and political work system

Perfecting the Local Party Committee and Grasping the Ideological and Political Work System in Colleges and Universities. Party committees should put the ideological and political work in colleges and universities into an important position, strengthen the organization and leadership and work guidance, establish a common mechanism of departmental cooperation, form a unified leadership of the party committee, party and government co-management, coordination of functional departments, the active participation of all parties pattern[7]. Adhere to the guidance of Marxism, adhere to the party's leadership of colleges and universities, firmly grasp the direction of socialism, enhance road self-confidence, theoretical self-confidence, self-confidence, cultural self-confidence, cultivate qualified Chinese architects and reliable successors.

Local Party committees at all levels should ensure that the correct orientation of colleges and universities, master the ideological and political work in colleges and universities to ensure that colleges and universities have always been to cultivate the cause of socialism builders and successors strong positions. Party committees at all levels should put ideological and political work in colleges and universities in an important position, strengthen leadership and guidance, form a unified leadership of the party committee, all departments in all aspects of co-management pattern. Party committee secretary and relevant departments of the party secretary to walk to college, more teachers and students contact, repeatedly to the University for a Report to answer teachers and students concerned about the theoretical and practical problems. To strengthen ties with the intellectuals of colleges and universities, more care, more exchanges, more encouragement, good friends, make friends, make friends, listen to their views, really listen to their views[8].

2. Cultivate students always adhere to the socialist school direction

"China's higher education shoulders the important task of cultivating the socialist career builder and successor of moral, intellectual and aesthetic development must adhere to the correct political direction." General Secretary Xi Jinping delivered an important speech at the conference on ideological and political work in colleges and universities we must adhere to the correct direction of running schools that is always adhere to the socialist way of running schools. The ancient people of the cloud, "University of the Road, in the Mingde, in the people, in the only good." University is big; that is, in the industry doubts in the introduction of the road, Kai people to wisdom, people strive to become a pillar of the only. For today's colleges and universities, to cultivate what kind of people, how to train people and for whom to cultivate people, is always a fundamental problem. Once the wrong direction in the school, in the training of people on the problem, it is like a crooked neck tree, in any case are not long towering trees. To strengthen the ideological and political work in colleges and universities, the most important thing is to stand in the direction of running a school. Deeply comprehend the spirit of the general speech of General Secretary Xi Jinping, the most fundamental is to take the Lide tree as a central link, the ideological and political work throughout the whole process of education and teaching, to achieve full education, all-round education[9].

2.1 Cultivate students, adhere to the socialist school direction is fundamental.

China has a unique history, unique culture, unique national conditions, decided that China must go its own path of higher education development, do a good job of socialism with Chinese characteristics. China's higher education development direction should be closely linked with the realistic goal and future direction of our country's development, serve the people, serve the Chinese Communist Party to serve the country, serve for the consolidation and development of the socialist system with Chinese characteristics, and reform and opening up and socialist modernization Construction services.

2.2 Cultivate students, students are the main body.

"Only one of the first-rate universities in the university can become a world-class university." Ideological and political work is fundamentally a man's work, and there must be "people" in the eyes[10]. If you cannot do around the students, care for students, students, how to improve the ideological level of students, political consciousness, moral quality, cultural quality? Only to focus on the students of this center, pay attention to contact students with practical thinking, to guide them to correctly understand the world and China's development trend, a correct understanding of Chinese characteristics and international comparison, a correct understanding of the responsibility and historical mission of the times, a correct understanding of lofty ambitions and down to earth in order to comprehensively improve the students Ideological and political quality, so that students become both ability and political integrity, all-round development of talent.

2.3 Cultivate students, teachers are the key.

"At present, the ideological and political work in colleges and universities need generous, big move, big strategy." "To use the main channel of classroom teaching, ideological and political theory classes to adhere to the improvement to enhance the ideological and political education affinity and targeted to meet student growth development needs and expectations, the other courses should keep a section of drainage, kind of responsibility field, so that all kinds of courses and ideological and political theory class counterparts to form a synergistic effect." The preacher himself first clear, channel, educator own education first[8]. The ideological and political situation of teachers in colleges and universities is very strong demonstration, and only become the propagator of the advanced ideology and culture[9], the firm supporters of the party in order to better serve the students healthy growth instructors and guide the responsibility. Higher education institutions in accordance with the requirements of General Secretary Xi Jinping, to further strengthen the construction of teachers and morals, adhere to the teaching and education of unity, adhere to the unity of words and deeds, adhere to devote themselves to and focus on social unity, adhere to academic freedom and academic norms Unified, and guide the majority of teachers to Germany to moral, to Germany to teach, to teach Germany.

In order to enhance the synergy, to the Marxist theory as a guide, bring together the different regions, universities, disciplines, professional advantages of resources, to promote the ideological and political work of colleges and universities to enhance the leading, set up major research projects, projects, cultivate leading ideas, leading the times of high quality results[10]. To carry out theoretical research; to enhance the practicality of the research work will be the starting point and the foothold in the ideological and political construction to promote the construction of socialist core values, teachers and teachers in the construction of specific work, to enhance the work of targeted and effective.

3. Conclusion

Education is about the future of the nation. The majority of education people believe that colleges and universities should always become a socialist career builders and successors of the strong positions, the majority of teachers should better assume the healthy growth of the mentor and guide the responsibility of the people in order to build a well-off society. The great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation's Chinese dream provides strong intellectual support and talent support.

Do a good job of ideological and political work in colleges and universities, due to cause, because of the times into the situation due to the new - Xi Jinping general secretary of the request, triggering first-line ideological and political workers resonate. "The world will be happy; its product will be active." Higher education is a lighthouse of social spirit, college teachers and students is a new force to realize the Chinese dream. Learning and carrying out the spirit of General Secretary Xi Jinping important speech, and constantly strengthen the ideological and political work in colleges and universities, and always adhere to the correct direction of education, burning the ideal and the torch of faith, China's higher education will be able to gather more positive energy, stimulate greater creativity, To achieve the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation a steady stream of talent.
